2017 Theatre Season & Chunky Moves - Rule of Thirds

DATE: Thursday, 6 April 2017 - 8:00pm

A powerful and intricate piece, Rule of Thirds brings Artistic Director Anouk van Dijk's unique and highly physical movement style to the stage. Three dancers emerge from the darkness, meet, collide and battle an invisible force field that exists between them. All players are needed but who will lead? Be mesmerised by this daring, virtuosic performance, which celebrates perseverance, audacity and our common desire for reinvention.

DATE: Saturday, 8 April 2017 - 8:00pm

'It Ain't Easy Being Elvis' is the story of one man's journey across the globe as an Elvis Presley tribute artist. This is NOT an Elvis impersonator show and you certainly don't have to be an Elvis fan to enjoy this very personal and fascinating insight into what it takes to 'make it' on the world stage. Seriously, you couldn't make this stuff up! It's packed full of outrageous 'behind-the-scenes' stories, great songs and hysterical anecdotes that will have you laughing, crying, dancing and singing-along.

2017 Theatre Season & Ilbijerri & Belvoir

DATE: Thursday, 27 April 2017 - 7:30pm

Honest, raw and poignant, Coranderrk recreates an 1881 Victorian Parliamentary Inquiry where the people of Coranderrk Aboriginal Reserve went head-to-head with the Aboriginal Protection Board. Their goal was both simple and revolutionary: to be allowed to continue the brilliant experiment in self-determination they had pioneered on the scrap of country left to them. The performance revives the voices, black and white, who fought for a better pact between the country's oldest and newest inhabitants. Warnings: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander audiences are warned that this production contains images of deceased persons.
